Staff Expected Behavior

We want to see God work at Camp, so it is important that we pray and prepare ourselves to be a blessing at Camp. We do not expect staff to have everything in their lives in perfect order, but we do expect you to strive to be a good example in your attitude and manner of living. You are examples to these impressionable Campers and we want you to take that seriously by striving to honor God in your lives both on and off the Camp grounds.

What to bring to Camp: Excitement, a great attitude, Bible, notebook, pens, sleeping bag, heavy blanket, pillow, and a fitted sheet to cover the mattress, personal hygiene items like soap, shampoo, towels, toothbrush and toothpaste, hair care items, deodorant, etc...

Clothes: There is a dress code at Camp and it is the same for everyone. No sleeveless shirts, all shorts need to come to the knee, and no tight or revealing clothing. We don't want to be a distraction to each other. Warm clothes for evenings and mornings, weather in the mountains can be close to 32°. It does rain so bring a rain jacket and more than one pair of shoes.

What not to bring to Camp: Don't bring a bad attitude to Camp or a desire to do wrong. Any "noise" that keeps us from hearing God at Camp; like non-Christian music, headphones, video games, internet surfing, inappropriate physical contact or clothing that is distracting. We want you to hear God better while you are here. Don't bring valuables that could be misplaced. There is zero toleration for drugs, tobacco, or alcohol.

For Staff members under the age of 18: In case of emergency I understand you will make every effort to contact me. If I cannot be reached, I give my permission to the physician selected by an authorized staff member to hospitalize, and give proper treatment to my child if necessary for the safety and well-being of my child and other people at Camp.
